

RESOLUTION CONCERNING REGULATORY RELIEF FOR AMERICA'S SCHOOLS

WHEREAS, the Elementary and Secondary Education Act (ESEA), currently known as No Child Left Behind, is more than three years overdue for reauthorization; and

WHEREAS, the current law is widely recognized as flawed and "in need of improvement;" and

WHEREAS, the current accountability requirements will result in more than three quarters of America's public schools being labeled as failing in the coming school year; and

WHEREAS, such a drastic misrepresentation of the accomplishments of America's public schools does more harm than good and undermines the hard work of millions of educators and students across the nation every day; and

WHEREAS, America's public schools and the students they serve deserve relief from the onerous regulations that are widely acknowledged to be both unfair and overly burdensome; and

WHEREAS, in facing the challenge of implementing these complex regulations, school districts across the nation struggle with the rigidity of regulation and are forced to spend resources, both financial and human, on compliance rather than on teaching and learning; and

WHEREAS, it is increasingly unlikely that Congress will be able to complete full reauthorization before the 2011/12 school year and alleviate pressure from both current law and its related regulations.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Farmington Board of Education supports reauthorization of the outdated ESEA legislation.

We urge—absent Congressional reauthorization—immediate regulatory relief for the 2011/12 school year, and any efforts to rescind or modify current regulations and alleviate undue pressure on the nation's schools.

We urge the Department of Education to exercise their regulatory authority to relieve school districts from the constraints of current statutes, keeping schools from being held hostage while Congress moves forward with complete reauthorization.

We request that this relief be straight regulatory relief, not waivers. Schools deserve straight regulatory relief, and not the additional requirements or conditions that often come with waivers.

We specifically support suspension of additional sanctions under current AYP requirements, effective for the 2011/12 school year. (Schools currently facing sanctions would remain frozen; no new schools would be labeled as 'In Need of Improvement' or subject to new or additional sanctions.)

Dated this 21st day of June, 2011.
