

Senior adults invited to the school district's annual Senior Adult Breakfast on Wednesday, October 26

Farmington, Michigan---Friends and neighbors will gather for Farmington Public Schools' 14th annual Senior Adult Breakfast on Wednesday, October 26 at the Costick Activities Center. The event begins at 9 a.m.

The Breakfast continues to draw hundreds of area senior adults who get an opportunity to speak with District representatives about current educational issues. Round table discussions include topics such as curriculum, educational services, technology, student successes and other topics participants wish to learn more about.

The breakfast program also includes student curriculum exhibits and performances by student musicians.

Another highlight of the breakfast is the announcement of the 2011 Senior Adult Extraordinary award winner. The purpose of the award is to recognize, promote, and encourage the volunteer efforts of senior citizens in Farmington Public Schools. The honored senior citizen (age 60 and above) must volunteer in the District and contribute to the overall educational process. Past award winners include: Virginia Starr, Lincoln Avery, Leona Goetz, Toula Mehas, Demetra Mehas, Tina Mehas, Allen Whittemore, and Diane DeSousa.

Reservations for this special event are required and limited to the first 300 people. To make a reservation, please call School/Community Relations at 248.489.3349.
